The PIO's are responsible for collecting information requested by the applicants and providing to the RTI applicants. Also, several officers have been appointed as Assistant Public Information Officers (APIOs). Their job is only to accept applications from the public and forward it to the right PIO.

(Sub-Section (3) of Section 5)

19. Where can one find the concerned PIO?

Each organization has published the name of the Central Public Information Officer. A list of PIOs / APIOs for all Central and State departments / Ministries is available online at www.rti.gov.in

A list of PIOs/APIOs of HAL is available under RTI tab of HAL website.

(Sub-Section (2) of Section 5)

20. Can the PIO refuse to accept RTI application?

No. The PIO cannot refuse to accept a RTI application for information under "any circumstances". Even if the information does not pertain to his / her department / jurisdiction, she / he has to accept it.

If the application does not pertain to that PIO, he would have to transfer it to the right PIO within 5 days.

It shall be the duty of the Central Information Commission or State Information Commission, as the case may be, to receive and inquire into a complaint from any person.

(Sub-Section (3) of Section 6)

21. What are the duties of PIO, in case of rejection of RTI application?

Where a request for information has been rejected, the PIO shall communicate to the person about the reasons for such rejection; the period within which an appeal against such rejection may be preferred; and the particulars of the Appellate Authority.

(Sub-Section 8 of Section 7)

22. What could be the ground for rejection?

- a) If it is covered by exemption from disclosure.
- b) If it infringes copyright of any person other than the State.

The PIO can deny information in some cases/matters. The various exemptions from disclosure of information are listed in Section 8 of the RTI Act, 2005.

If the sought information is in public interest then the exemptions enumerated in Section 8 of the RTI Act, 2005 can also be disclosed.

(Section 8)

23. What if PIO fails to give the information?

If a PIO fails to furnish the information asked for under the Act, every PIO will be liable for fine of Rs. 250 per day up to a maximum of Rs. 25,000/- for:-

- Not accepting an application
- Delaying information release without reasonable cause
- Malafidely denying information
- Knowingly giving incomplete, incorrect, misleading information

- g) Where a request has been rejected, the PIO shall communicate to the requester-
 - (i) the reasons for such rejection,
 - (ii) the period within which an appeal against such rejection may be preferred, and
 - (iii) the particulars of the Appellate Authority.
- h) PIO shall provide information in the form in which it is sought unless it would disproportionately divert the resources of the Public Authority or would be detrimental to the safety or preservation of the record in question.
- i) If allowing partial access, the PIO shall give a notice to the applicant, informing:
 - (i). that only part of the record requested, after severance of the record containing information which is exempt from disclosure, is being provided;
 - (ii). the reasons for the decision, including any findings on any material question of fact, referring to the material on which those findings were based;
 - (iii). the name and designation of the person giving the decision;
 - (iv). the details of the fees calculated by him or her and the amount of fee which the applicant is required to deposit; and
 - (v). his or her rights with respect to review of the decision regarding non-disclosure of part of the information, the amount of fee charged or the form of access provided.
 - (vi). If information sought has been supplied by third party or is treated as confidential by that third party, the PIO shall give a written notice to the third party within 5 days from the receipt of the request and take its representation into consideration.
 - (vii). Third party must be given a chance to make a representation before the PIO within 10 days from the date of receipt of such notice.

27. Who are the Appellate Authorities?

In case a person fails to get a response from the PIO within the prescribed period or is aggrieved by the response received, or misuse of Section 8 of the Act, then he/she can file an appeal within 30 days with an officer superior in rank to the PIO (First Appellate Authority). (Section 19[1])

- a) First Appeal: First appeal to the officer senior in rank to the PIO in the concerned Public Authority within 30 days from the expiry of the prescribed time limit or from the receipt of the decision (delay may be condoned by the Appellate Authority if sufficient cause is shown).
- b) Second Appeal: Second appeal to the Central Information Commission or the State Information Commission as the case may be, within 90 days of the date on which the decision was given or should have been made by the First Appellate Authority (delay may be condoned by the Commission if sufficient cause is shown).
- c) Third Party appeal against PIO's decision must be filed within 30 days before first Appellate Authority; and, within 90 days of the decision on the first appeal, before the appropriate Information Commission which is the Second Appellate Authority.
- d) Burden of proving that denial of Information was justified lies with the PIO.
- e) First Appeal shall be disposed of within 30 days from the date of its receipt.
- d) Period extendable by 15 days if necessary.

(Section 19)
